

Installing Office 2007

The install of Office 2007 will take approximately 20 minutes and should require no interaction from you.

1. From the Novell Application launcher, double click on icon shown below.

2. The install will start automatically and the following window will appear.

3. The installation will end and the following window will appear. Click close.

